General French & Private Tuition (FGCP)

This course is designed for adults of all levels who need to communicate with greater ease for personal or professional reasons. It combines group lessons that facilitate intercultural exchanges and the dynamism of a group with the private tuition to work on individual objectives.

Objectives FG:

- Acquiring the tools necessary for the development of communicational skills, with focus on oral skills
- Using these skills in everyday situations
- Facing every type of communication with more ease and confidence

Objectives CP:

- The objectives are defined by a questionnaire you will receive before the beginning of the course in order to prepare your private classes
- Priority is given to oral communication (training of comprehension and expression, use of French in everyday and professional situation, reactivation of means of expression), unless request to work on written expression
