

Executive French (FP)

This program is designed for executives or senior managers from different fields who work directly with French speaking persons. It is structured and personalized according to the common needs of the participants. The School gives a priority to the constitution of intercultural groups which encourages the use of French as the common language.

Objectives FP:

- Improve and develop all types of communication
- Acquire a specific vocabulary adapted to varied professional situations
- Reinforce grammatical and linguistic skills necessary in the professional life
- To see and better understand the aspects of intercultural communications
