

General French & Private lessons (FGCP)

This course is designed for adults of different nationalities who wish to improve their French communication skills for personal or professional reasons. Students are taught in small groups by qualified teachers, who create a friendly and dynamic learning environment. The course combines the intercultural and dynamic exchanges of group lessons with personalized private lessons to complement the group work.

FG objectives:

- Obtain fluency and the confidence to communicate in French in everyday situations
- Discovering French culture and society in different ways
- Develop your know-how and social skills in an international environment and in situations of communication

CP objective:

We analyse your request after which the program is prepared in detail by your teacher according to your objectives that are set up with the help of the questionnaire
