In-person courses

Exam

Possibility to take the DELF exam at the end of the course (at an additional cost). The DELF provides a lifelong official certificate validating your level of French.

Objectives

- Develop greater fluency and confidence in everyday spoken French.
- Benefit from a continuous 12-week programme.
- Prepare for an official examination, which may be taken at the end of the semester (optional).

Program

- Review and study of French language structures.
- Development of key skills: listening and reading comprehension, spoken and written production, as well as interaction and mediation.
- Teaching based on everyday situations, using a variety of authentic materials.
- Conversations, debates and presentations.
- Part of the course will be dedicated to DELF exam preparation at A2, B1 or B2 level, with specific practice modules.
- Off-site educational activities may also be organised.

Group placement

Students will complete an online test before the start of the course and an oral evaluation on the first day to create adapted groups.

Teachers

Our teachers all have a degree in teaching French as a Foreign Language (FLE) and receive ongoing training to develop pedagogical techniques. They animate alternately the course and coordinate with each other for a precise follow-up.

Progress, assessment & certificate

Progress is assessed throughout the programme through regular assessments and a final evaluation. Attendance is monitored in every class. On the final day, each student receives a certificate stating the duration and level of the course completed, in accordance with the CEFR.*

Accessibility

We assess the specific needs of people with disabilities in order to implement any appropriate accommodations.
