Group

Minimum 4 participants
(We reserve the right to modify the number of lessons/activities if the number of participants is below the required number)

Schedule

Organised by IS Aix-en-Provence, this programme is the perfect complement to learning French, with activities organised on certain afternoons and a half-day on Saturday. It is only available to participants enrolled in a General French course in the morning or in a minimum of 20 private lessons per week.

Objective

- Discover Provence's cultural and natural heritage through walks led by a professional guide, while practising French in real-life situations in nature.

Program

- Two afternoon walks in the Sainte-Victoire mountain range, discovering the Bimont Dam, the Bibémus Plateau and the landscapes that inspired Paul Cézanne.
- An afternoon walk starting from the village of Vauvenargues, where Picasso spent the final years of his life, discovering the Délubre valley.
- A full-day walk through the landscapes of Sainte-Victoire, from the Maison Sainte-Victoire to Le Tholonet.
- An afternoon walk in Saint-Antonin-sur-Bayon, followed by a tasting of local wines.
- A full-day walk in the Calanques National Park, along the Mediterranean coast, to discover its landscapes and typical flora.

This programme includes several walks and hikes. A good level of physical fitness is recommended to make the most of the programme, and wearing walking shoes (or equivalent) is mandatory.
